MORRIS PARK FORM CHART.

WESTCHESTER, N. Y., May 7.—Third day. Westchester Racing Association. Spring Meeting. Weather clear; track fast.

Presiding Judge, Clarence McDowell. Starter, C. J. Fitzgerald.

Racing starts at 2:30 p. m.

24807 FIRST RACE—Last 3-4 Withers Mile. $600 added. 3-year-olds and upward. Allowances.

Time, 12, 24, 36½, 49½, 1:14½.

Winner—Blk. c, by Watercrest—Sabrina.
Went to post at 2:30. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won easily. Water Color's victory was hardly as impressive as the odds would lead one to expect. Still the race was a fast one and his opponent, Cervera, may prove a useful horse in his class.
Scratched—20962 Mayor Gilroy, 123; 24735 Frankfort, 106.

24808 SECOND RACE—Withers Mile. $550 added. 3-year-olds and upward. Selling.

Time, 25, 49½, 1:15½, 1:41½.

Winner—Br. g, by The Sailor Prince—Oolah.
Went to post at 2:55. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second the same. Buffoon was finely handled and saving ground on the stretch turn, came home with a good burst of speed. Animosity was carried wide on the stretch turn and her jockey's failure to straighten her away quickly, accounts for her defeat. Scurry displayed unusual speed today and looked promising in the stretch. His race was a decided improvement. Speedmast ran well for seven furlongs. With patience and care this mare, who is now palpably out of form, may round to. When good she can easily beat this kind.
No show betting.

24809 THIRD RACE—Last 7-8 Withers Mile. 3-year-olds. Allowances. The Larchmont Stakes. $1,000 added.

Winner—Ch. c, by St. Florian—Holiday.
Went to post at 3:25. At post 7 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second the same. Smile is close to first class. When called upon in the stretch he came away like a shot. He is a grand looking three year-old and perhaps, excepting the runner up, far outclassed the field. Paul Clifford's work this spring has been of the sensational order and he has been heralded as a second Hamburg. He showed a glimpse of high class form but is evidently far from himself as he has been ailing of late. Nones broke slowly and was forced to come around the big field and made a strong bid in the stretch, finishing fast. Belvino is also above the ordinary and closed strongly at the end. Admiral Dewey improved his position from the start. Frankfort showed a good burst of speed and this race is hardly his true form.
Scratched—24773 Lanceman, 115; Magnetic, 112; 24638 Deluge, 110; 21707 Mintage, 110.
Smile, show, 1 to 3. Paul Clifford, show, 3 to 5. Nones, show, 7 to 5.

24810 FOURTH RACE—Eclipse Course. 3-year-olds and upward. The Toboggan Handicap. $1,000 added.

Time, 1:13½.

Winner—Ch. h, by Farandole—Blessing.
Went to post at 4:00. At post 4 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second driving. Banastar was best and outclassed the others. He is putting his best foot forward in his recent races and ran a game and true race today. King Pepper put up another fast and game race and is a grand colt this year. Unmasked was simply outclassed by the first two. He tired in the last furlong after appearing to be the probable winner. He has a tremendous burst of speed but seemingly cannot stay. King Lief, Lady Uncas and Belle of Lexington are all great in muddy going. The field was closely bunched up to the last eighth and the last four, after being disposed of, were all easing up at the end.
Scratched—20532 Voter, 130; (24736) Hesper, 105; 21813 Redpath, 104; 22163 May W., 98; 21123 Princess Pepper, 96; 24577 In Shot, 93.
Overweights—King Pepper, 4 pounds; King Lief, 3; Belle of Lexington, 3.
Banastar, show, out. King Pepper, show, 4 to 5. Unmasked, show, 1 to 3.

Time, 54½.

Winner—B. f, by Hastings—Royal Gun.

Went to post at 4:20. At post 6 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second easily. Gunfire was best. She came with an irresistible rush in the last hundred yards and must be a superior filly on this race as she beat good ones. Golden Cottage appeared to be a certain winner up to the last fifty yards. The task of disposing of Miss Hastings in the first half probably made him weaken at the end. The pace was very fast. Miss Hastings' form today was in great contrast to her last race. Major Daingerfield should give a good account of himself from now on. He acted sluggishly through the race, but he finished with a great rush in the last hundred yards. Gold Cure stuck to his work for only about half the journey. He can do much better. Orla ran poorly. Her appearance suggests something wrong with her.
Scratched—Friar Tabor, 112; 24737 Leonid, 112; 24737 Bruff, 11; Dandy West, 112.
Overweights—Miss Hastings, 3 pounds.
Gunfire, show, 4 to 1. Golden Cottage, show, 1 to 3. Miss Hastings, show, 6 to 5.

24812 SIXTH RACE—Withers Mile. $700 added. 3-year-olds and upward. Handicap.

Time, 24½, 49½, 1:15½, 1:41.

Winner—B. c, by Longstreet—Pretense.
Went to post at 5:00. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won easily; second the same. The Parader was not extended from start to finish. He is undoubtedly one of the good three-year-olds of the year. He has size, speed and undoubted gameness and is an ideal-looking Derby horse. Sidney Lucas was badly pocketed in the stretch and had to be driven to his utmost to beat Sailor King. Sailor King displayed fine form for him. His speed and resolute finishing powers should give him success when among his own class.
Scratched—24773 Decanter, 110; (24775) Herbert, 106; 24738 All Gold, 101; 21498 Baron Pepper, 97.

Winner—Ch. f, by Hermance—Itinerant.
Went to post at 2:33. At post 23 minutes. Start straggling. The three leaders were driving. Wakita, a smart filly, was a good thing and ran a good race. She got through an ugly bunch, stood a long drive, and was driving less hard than the others at the end. Mystee came strong at the finish. Jungfrau closed fast too. Rossy Cross cut up frantically at the post, but ran a good race. The start was delayed by Rossy Cross throwing Winstett at the post.
Wakita, show, out. Mystee, show, 7 to 5. Jungfrau, show, 7 to 10.

Winner—B. c, by Candlemas—Utility.
Went to post at 3:20. At post 23 minutes. Start good. Won easily; next two driving. Wax Taper was much the best. H. S. Tobacco seemed sore and as if it was too far for him. Eight Bells is high in flesh but ran a good race and showed a lot of speed.
Scratched—24692 Swordsman, 112; 24639 Winyah, 105; 24753 Lady Carzon, 105.

Winner—B. f, by Burlington—Marina.
Went to post at 3:50. At post 10 minutes. Start poor. Won cleverly; next four driving. Queen Burlington was off two lengths in front, took the shortest route and never was in danger. Winter Bell came fast at the finish after getting away in a tangle. All Mine was off badly and made up a lot of ground in the stretch. Duella is Duellist's sister and a small filly.
Overweights—Huntressa, 2 pounds.

Winner—Ch. g. by Dr. Hasbrouck—Careless.
Went to post at 2:20. At post 12 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second the same; third and fourth were driving hard. Aransas was the best and best ridden. He was well saved at the post, got away fully in his stride, had clear sailing and came away without much of an effort when called upon. Dugan beat the barrier with Lou Woods, hugged the rail all the way, and the colt did as well as he possibly could. Gracchi had bad luck throughout. See had her in and out and all over the race track. She was certainly badly ridden, but the handling Tripp got was worse. Arigato, away none too well and hampered at every turn showed good form. Blue Ridge was dull of speed and never had a chance. Fisher's Hornpipe was led to the post, acted badly there, and before anything could be done with him Starter Dwyer had to have the blinkers he wore removed. After that the starter had no trouble with him.
Scratched—24627 Miss Canale, 100.
Overweights—John D., 3 pounds.

Winner—Ch. c. by Sir Dixon—Adele.
Went to post at 3:00. At post 9 minutes. Start fair. Won easily; second whipped out. Dyonax is a grand looker and far outclassed his company. He simply buck jumped under double wraps all the way. This individual apparently is in excellent form and should beat better ones on call. John Drake is most ordinary, but ran true to form. He was "winging" out in front on the far turn, but as soon as Dyonax collared him he stopped. Outside the winner it was an ordinary lot. Sculptress ran away in a false break, which ruined whatever chances she may have had, and after going half the distance in the race Jackson pulled her up.
John Drake, show, out. Hanswurst, show, 9 to 10. Sculptress, show, 1 to 3.

Winner—Ch. g. by Blitzen—Sue B.
Went to post at 3:20. Off at the second break to a perfect start. Won easily; second hand ridden. Boney Boy on this occasion was much the best, but was none too well ridden. Coburn took him around the other two on the far turn, thereby losing much ground. Still, this cut no figure in the result. He simply is a better horse than Ohnet, and the latter's victory over him the last time they met was not a true one. Boney Boy's win was decisive. Kiley rode Ohnet to the best advantage. Possart is a common selling plater. He was none too well ridden. Gormley went on the backstretch, fighting Possart, as hard as the colt was fighting him.
Corrected weights—Ohnet, 107.
Overweights—Ohnet, 2 pounds.

Winner—B. c. by Julien—Brooklet.
Went to post at 3:50. At post 3 minutes. Start perfect. Won easily; second well in hand. Bridge was the best and plainly showed it. He ran a much better race than his last. Herodiade was right there all the way and is an extremely smart maiden. It would be hard for Crowhurst to explain his ride on Bridge the last time the colt started. On that occasion he had no speed but revived suddenly. The race plainly showed Bridge to be a high class colt.
Overweights—Little Scout, 4 pounds.
No show betting.

Winner—B. g. by Strathmore—Eloise.
Went to post at 4:15. At post 6 minutes. Start fair. Won driving and out to the last ounce; second and third as hard driven. As the race ran Oxnard was the best. He was well ridden. Lewis picked his way through after getting away well and took the shortest route. Zacatoso broke full on his stride, showed plenty of speed, but Seaton was a great handicap to him. With a better rider he might possibly have won. Krewer is strictly a front runner and Timms kept him near that point as long as possible. Tobe Paine, away poorly and interfered with often, might also have won. Davison managed to get Phidias shut off on the first turn. This ruined his chances. Obsidian will do only a muddy track.
Oxnard, show, 24 to 1. Zacatoso, show, 2 to 1. Tobe Paine, show, 6 to 5. Obsidian, show, evens.

Winner—Blk. f. by Major Domo—Madge.
Went to post at 4:45. At post 3 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second, third and fourth driving. Do Madge ran true to form. She was cleverly handled. Mathews persevered with her the first part of it and when the natural spread came at the head of the stretch shot her through with a rush. She is a good selling plater, but of the moody kind. Plead was badly ridden. Timms did everything but fall off. W. B. Gates made a sturdy bid on the stretch turn, but hung at the end. He is better than the ordinary selling plater, but prefers mud. Nansen possibly is overrated. Patroon took the long route and ran out on the stretch turn. Boomerack had a lot of speed, but it was not of the lasting kind. Lamachus ran a bad race.
Scratched—(24602) Annowan, 111; (24630) Irma S, 106.
